

You've Got to Trick a Widow or Two! (Abanazar's song)

PS201

To the tune of "You've Got to Pick-A-Pocket Or Two"
By Lionel Bart (from Oliver!)

I don't care about you lot
Think of all the power I've got!
Live and let live – but take, don't give ...
You've got to trick a widow or two
You've got to trick a widow or two, boys
You've got to trick a widow or two!
 Live, let live, but take, don't give...
 You've got to trick a widow or two!

I shall woo her with style
She will swoon before my guile
To get what you need and feed your greed
You've got to trick a widow or two
You've got to trick a widow or two, boys
You've got to trick a widow or two!
 What you need will feed your greed
 You've got to trick a widow or two!

Never fear! I'll be rich
When I've fooled this old witch
Honestly, when you're like me,
You've got to trick a widow or two
You've got to trick a widow or two, boys
You've got to trick a widow or two!
 Honestly, it's clear that we
 Have got to trick a widow or two!

From the cave dark and damp
Her young boy will get my lamp
If your dream's to be supreme
You've got to trick a widow or two
You've got to trick a widow or two, boys
You've got to trick a widow or two
 Our dream is to be supreme
 We've got to trick a widow or two!

© Lyrics: Pantomime Songs Limited 2012

Note: the Copyright for "You've Got to Pick-A-Pocket Or Two" belongs to Lakeview Music Publishing Company Limited, Suite 2.07 Plaza 535 King's Road, London
SW10 UK (1950)